

Step 2: Identify an influential person

An effective strategy to focusing in on what you want to be and do is to identify a highly influential individual in your life and think how this individual has contributed to your life. This person may be a parent, co-worker, friend, family member, teacher, neighbor, or mentor. It may also, be someone you have never met, but they have touched you in a life-changing way.

Looking into God's Word

1. Before we begin, let's look at the example of how Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, was influential in Moses' life in the wilderness. As you read Exodus 18:1-27, what do you observe about the relationship between Moses and Jethro?
2. How did Jethro influence Moses?
3. How did Moses respond to Jethro?
4. Who has been one of the most influential people in your life? How and why?
5. Which of their qualities do you most admire? Why?
6. What qualities have you gained (or desire to gain) from that person?

a passion for? What is a good fit for your personality, gifts, and desire? Combine your spiritual gifts inventory with God's commands in Scripture and write out what you believe God wants you to do with your time on this earth.

Different kinds of statements:

1. Laurie Beth Jones, author of The Path, believes strongly in a short, written statement. She gives a formula: My mission is to _____, _____, and _____ (fill in with 3 verbs that fit you) _____ (a core value such as service, justice, mercy, family, creativity, freedom, etc.,) to, for, or with _____ (this is the group or cause that most excites you).
 - Example:
 - From a CEO: My mission is to foster innovation, enhance cooperation, and create prosperity for all whom I serve.
 - From a labor relations expert: My mission is to uphold, discover, and support trust, honesty, and integrity in all relationships.
2. Richard Nelson Bolles, author of How to Find Your Mission in Life, doesn't follow a formula but quotes some short statements:
 - My mission is, out of the rich reservoir of love which God seems to have given me, to nurture and show love for others – most particularly to those who are suffering from incurable diseases.
 - My mission is to weep with those who weep, so that in my arms they may feel themselves in the terms of that Eternal Love which sent me and created them.

Now it's your turn. ☺ Write out your personal mission statement below. Remember, this is a rough draft. You may even write out several and then pray over which one best expresses the vision for your life.

A clear mission statement answers three questions:

- Who is your ministry focus group?
- What needs are you seeking to meet?
- How will you accomplish your mission?

Your Statement:

Step 5: Evaluate

Once you have written out your rough draft of your personal mission statement, it is a good idea to consistently evaluate it and update it as your life changes. It is important to make changes accordingly as

Looking reflectively

- Is my mission based on timeless, proven principles? Which ones?
- Do I feel direction, purpose, challenge, and some motivation when I review this statement?
- Am I aware of the strategies and skills that will help me accomplish what I have written?
- What do I need to start doing now to be where I want to be tomorrow?
- The final test of the value and effectiveness of a Mission Statement is the following question:
Does this statement inspire me?

“We are not primarily called to do something or go somewhere; we are called to Someone. We are not called first to special work but to God. The key to answering the call is to be devoted to no one and to nothing above God Himself.” –Os Guinness

Discover Your Spiritual Gifts!

By Gene Wilkes

Ken Hemphill defines a spiritual gift as “an individual manifestation of grace from the Father that enables you to serve Him and thus play a vital role in His plan for the redemption of the world.”¹ Peter Wagner defines a spiritual gift as “a special attribute given by the Holy Spirit to every member of the Body of Christ according to God’s grace for use within the context of the Body.”² I like to use this definition:

A spiritual gift is an expression of the Holy Spirit in the life of believers which empowers them to serve the body of Christ, the church.

Romans 12:6-8; 1 Corinthians 12:8-10, 28-30; Ephesians 4:11; and 1 Peter 4:9-11 contain representative lists of gifts and roles God has given to the church. A definition of these gifts follows.³

- Leadership—Leadership aids the body by leading and directing members to accomplish the goals and purposes of the church. Leadership motivates people to work together in unity toward common goals (Rom. 12:8).
- Administration—Persons with the gift of administration lead the body by steering others to remain on task. Administration enables the body to organize according to God-given purposes and long-term goals (1 Cor. 12:28).
- Teaching—Teaching is instructing members in the truths and doctrines of God’s Word for the purposes of building up, unifying, and maturing the body (1 Cor. 12:28; Rom. 12:7; Eph. 4:11).
- Knowledge—The gift of knowledge manifests itself in teaching and training in discipleship. It is the God-given ability to learn, know, and explain the precious truths of God’s Word. A word of knowledge is a Spirit-revealed truth (1 Cor. 12:28).
- Wisdom—Wisdom is the gift that discerns the work of the Holy Spirit in the body and applies His teachings and actions to the needs of the body (1 Cor. 12:28).
- Prophecy—The gift of prophecy is proclaiming the Word of God boldly. This builds up the body and leads to conviction of sin. Prophecy manifests itself in preaching and teaching (1 Cor. 12:10; Rom. 12:6).
- Discernment—Discernment aids the body by recognizing the true intentions of those within or related to the body. Discernment tests the message and actions of others for the protection and well-being of the body (1 Cor. 12:10).
- Exhortation—Possessors of this gift encourage members to be involved in and enthusiastic about the work of the Lord. Members with this gift are good counselors and motivate others to service. Exhortation exhibits itself in preaching, teaching, and ministry (Rom. 12:8).
- Shepherding—The gift of shepherding is manifested in persons who look out for the spiritual welfare of others. Although pastors, like shepherds, do care for members of the church, this gift is not limited to a pastor or staff member (Eph. 4:11).
- Faith—Faith trusts God to work beyond the human capabilities of the people. Believers with this gift encourage others to trust in God in the face of apparently insurmountable odds (1 Cor. 12:9).
- Evangelism—God gifts his church with evangelists to lead others to Christ effectively and enthusiastically. This gift builds up the body by adding new members to its fellowship (Eph. 4:11).

- Apostleship—The church sends apostles from the body to plant churches or be missionaries. Apostles motivate the body to look beyond its walls in order to carry out the Great Commission (1 Cor. 12:28; Eph. 4:11).
- Service/Helps—Those with the gift of service/helps recognize practical needs in the body and joyfully give assistance to meeting those needs. Christians with this gift do not mind working behind the scenes (1 Cor. 12:28; Rom. 12:7).
- Mercy—Cheerful acts of compassion characterize those with the gift of mercy. Persons with this gift aid the body by empathizing with hurting members. They keep the body healthy and unified by keeping others aware of the needs within the church (Rom. 12:8).
- Giving—Members with the gift of giving give freely and joyfully to the work and mission of the body. Cheerfulness and liberality are characteristics of individuals with this gift (Rom. 12:8).
- Hospitality—Those with this gift have the ability to make visitors, guests, and strangers feel at ease. They often use their home to entertain guests. Persons with this gift integrate new members into the body (1 Pet. 4:9).

God has gifted you with an expression of His Holy Spirit to support His vision and mission of the church. It is a worldwide vision to reach all people with the gospel of Christ. As a servant leader, God desires that you know how He has gifted you. This will lead you to where He would have you serve as part of His vision and mission for the church.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS SURVEY

DIRECTIONS

This is not a test, so there are no wrong answers. The Spiritual Gifts Survey consists of 80 statements. Some items reflect concrete actions; other items are descriptive traits; and still others are statements of belief.

- Select the one response you feel best characterizes yourself and place that number in the blank provided. Record your answer in the blank beside each item.
- Do not spend too much time on any one item. Remember, it is not a test. Usually your immediate response is best.
- Please give an answer for each item. Do not skip any items.
- Do not ask others how they are answering or how they think you should answer.
- Work at your own pace.

Your response choices are:

- 5—Highly characteristic of me/definitely true for me
 - 4—Most of the time this would describe me/be true for me
 - 3—Frequently characteristic of me/true for me—about 50 percent of the time
 - 2—Occasionally characteristic of me/true for me—about 25 percent of the time
 - 1—Not at all characteristic of me/definitely untrue for me

GRAPHING YOUR PROFILE

1. For each gift place a mark across the bar at the point that corresponds to your TOTAL for that gift.
2. For each gift shade the bar below the mark that you have drawn.
3. The resultant graph gives a picture of your gifts. Gifts for which the bars are tall are the ones in which you appear to be strongest. Gifts for which the bars are very short are the ones in which you appear not to be strong.

Now that you have completed the survey, thoughtfully answer the following questions.

The gifts I have begun to discover in my life are:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

- After prayer and worship, I am beginning to sense that God wants me to use my spiritual gifts to serve Christ's body by _____.
- I am not sure yet how God wants me to use my gifts to serve others. But I am committed to prayer and worship, seeking wisdom and opportunities to use the gifts I have received from God.

Ask God to help you know how He has gifted you for service and how you can begin to use this gift in ministry to others.
