Dear Parents,

Bible Adventure is for elementary children in grades 3-____ who want to learn more about God and His Word. We sing, listen to a Bible lesson, and spend time with caring adult “listeners” in small groups. Bible Adventure is operated by Joy El Ministries.

This spring we are excited to offer a “sneak peek” to second graders who might want to join us next year! Your child is welcome to join us on _____. If you would like your child to attend, please fill out the permission form on the reverse side and return it to the school.

Our local Bible Adventure group meets from _____ at _____. Transportation is provided by Joy El. Parents are always welcome to observe and are also encouraged to volunteer.

Permission forms for next year will be distributed at school in September. We hope that your child will enjoy the Second Grade Sneak Peek and wish to return to Bible Adventure in the fall!

If you have any questions, please contact me at _____.

Sincerely,

Bible Adventure School Coordinator
